

United States Air Force

Scientific Advisory Board

Maj Gen George B. Harrison, USAF (Ret)

Georgia Tech Research Institute

EDUCATION:

Wharton University of Pennsylvania
M.B.A. Industrial Management, 1970
U.S. Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs
B.S., Public Policy, 1962

WORK EXPERIENCE:

Georgia Tech Research Institute, Atlanta, GA
Director, Research Operations, 1998-Present
Director, Electronic Systems Laboratory, 1997-1998
Air Force Operational Test & Evaluation Center, Albuquerque, NM
Commander, 1993-1997
USAF Air Warfare Center, Fort Walton Beach, FL
Commander, 1992-1993
U.S. Air Forces in Europe, Ramstein Air Base, Germany
Deputy Chief of Staff, Operations, 1991-1992
Air Force Center for Studies and Analysis, Washington, DC
Commander, 1989-1991

AREAS OF EXPERTISE:

Electronic warfare, modeling and simulation, test and evaluation air operations, IR/EO, sensors, command & control, intelligence systems, information warfare, aerodynamics, aviation

PROFESSIONAL/SCIENTIFIC/HONORARY AFFILIATIONS:

Fellow, Beta Gamma Sigma, NDIA, Society of Wild Weasels, Association of Old Crows, ITEA
